Re: Talecris Biotherapeutics, Inc., et al. v. Baxter International Inc., et al.
U.S.D.C., Dist. of Delaware, Action No. 05-349-GMS
Our Reference No. 018652-004000

Dear Jaclyn:

Pursuant to Paragraph 12 of the Protective Order, we hereby return two CDs containing the following ranges of documents that Talecris alleges were inadvertently produced: TAL 040302-040315; TAL 040318-040344; TAL 040379-040385 and TAL 040101-040107. The first CD is labeled TAL 004 with the date June 16, 2006. The second CD is labeled TAL 004 with the date July 24, 2006. We will also destroy any extra copies, summaries of, and notes relating to these documents. By returning these documents, Baxter does not admit that these documents are privileged and does not waive its right to seek permission from the court to use these documents at a later date. Additionally, pursuant to Judge Sleet's statements at the August 17, 2006 hearing, Talecris should not destroy these documents.

Very truly yours,

Priya Sreenivasan
